

As we finally come into cooler temps and the changing of the seasons, now is the perfect time to encourage your students to explore different types of reading material.

Both libraries have extensive displays to entice the students to expand their reading horizons. Come check out what we have for National Take A Field Trip Month, Hispanic Heritage Month and Columbus Day!

Upcoming Events

October 9

National Stop Bullying Day

October 14

Columbus Day

October 16

National Dictionary Day

October 31

Halloween

These resources will help you incorporate these monthly themes into your lesson plans.

We may not be able to take our students out of the classroom, but have you considered a Virtual Trip instead? There are some fantastic resources for trips all over and out of this world!
